The two must harmonize to make a life of harmony and to do the most work in it. The essence of all wisdom has been culled and put into the Bible. That tells us the truth of what we say. But we need not this; we can see for ourselves. A training to vice from youth up, leads to the workhouse and the gallows. It is in this way that our criminals are made. There are hardly exceptions to this. On the other hand, a childhood spent under the influence of a true mother, secures the man against the dangers of the other class. It does this in most of the cases. "Give me the first three years of a
